Shannon Tanner Proudly Celebrates 20 Years of Family Entertainment at Shelter Cove Harbour

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (May 8, 2008) – Local music legend Shannon Tanner recently kicked off his 20th year at Shelter Cove Harbour on Hilton Head Island, S.C., much to the delight of audiences from across the country. One of the Lowcountry's most beloved musical artists, Tanner has delighted generations of fans with his high-energy, fun-loving performances.

Through June 1, Tanner performs live at the outdoor amphitheatre at Shelter Cove Harbour at 7 p.m., Monday through Friday. From June 2 through September 1, he will offer two shows nightly, Monday through Friday, at 6:30 and 8 p.m.

Tanner's performances, which are free and open to the public, serve as a highlight of HarbourFest 2008, a popular summerlong festival at Shelter Cove Harbour offering live music, special events, fireworks and more.

"I'm proud to celebrate 20 years of offering family-friendly entertainment on Hilton Head Island," said Tanner. "My performances deliver a lighthearted and often humorous array of songs and stories for children and adults. It's a real thrill to see kids come back, year after year. Eventually they grow up and bring their own children to my concerts, which is truly an honor."

Tanner writes and performs a variety of well-known sing-alongs, original ballads and '60s standards geared for all ages. Wearing his trademark beanie, he often gives kids the chance to share the stage at Shelter Cove Harbour.

A veteran of many family festivals and fairs around the country, Tanner has shared the stage with Amy Grant, the Beach Boys, America and many others. He also had the honor to perform private shows for such notables as President Gerald R. Ford, Vice President Dan Quayle and music legend Henry Mancini.
